M.A. Pali

General Instructions about the Course, the Pattern of Examination and the Syllabus

I. General Instructions

I.1 General Structure: M.A. Pali is a four-semester course offered by the Department of Pali and Buddhist Studies, Savitribai Phule Pune University. It contains sixty-four core credits plus ten additional credits of Skill Development, Cyber Security, and Human Rights Education. The course is to be completed within two years. It contains sixteen courses of four credits each. All the elective courses are also available for students doing any Master degree course in the university.

The Postgraduate (M.A.) course is a fulltime course. It is divided into two parts: M.A. Part I (consisting of two semesters: Semester I and Semester II) and M.A. Part II (consisting of two semesters: Semester III and Semester IV). The course will be conducted in the form of lectures, seminars, tutorials, group discussions, practice sessions and project work. Teaching of semesters, I and II will be sequential and also that of semesters III and IV. Syllabus of each course will be discussed in sixty clock hours (approximately) during each semester.

Students' understanding will be assessed on the basis of their performance on things, such as assignments, debate on conceptual issues, group discussion, essay writing, seminar presentation, tutorial writing, written and oral examination, etc.

Students are expected to maintain at least 75% attendance and to ensure their active participation in the class.

I.2 Introduction: The M.A. Pali course offers a deeper level understanding of the Buddhist literature available in Pali. It also introduces students to Buddhist literature in two other important languages, namely, Sanskrit and Tibetan. The syllabus of the course is designed in such a way that it gives holistic understanding of Buddhist literature along with its related fields, such as Comparative Linguistics and Philology, Philosophy (Indian and Western), Buddhist Art, Architecture and Epigraphy, Buddhist Psychology, and Engaged Buddhism. The course aims at providing a solid foundation in Buddhist literature, based on which students can pursue serious research in the field. It also prepares students for a bright academic career by enhancing their knowledge and capacities in different areas. Students completing this course together with a number of allied subjects mentioned above would have career openings in different fields, and could do path breaking work by connecting Buddhist literature with a number of other disciplines.

I.3 Objectives: The objectives of the M.A. Pali are:

- To provide thorough understanding of Pali language and literature with the help of extensive textual study of different genres
- To help students acquire foundational skills in Sanskrit and Tibetan with the purpose of encouraging comparative study
- To enable students to explore the vast field of Buddhist studies covering various other disciplines such as Linguistics, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology, History, Epigraphy, etc.
- To inspire students to find out relevance of the ancient Buddhist wisdom in the modern world having multiple challenges

I.4 Eligibility:

- B.A. in Pali/Buddhist Studies as a special or general subject
- Or, B.A. in any subject with Advanced Diploma in Pali/Buddhist Studies or its equivalent
- Or, Graduate of any faculty with Higher Diploma in Pali/Buddhist Studies or its equivalent

I.5 Duration: The duration of the M.A. Pali will be two academic years consisting of four semesters of fifteen weeks each.

I.6 Course Fee: The Admission Fee for the course, the Tuition Fee for the entire course of two-year duration, Examination Fee, Record Fee, Statement of Marks, and other essential fees will be as per the rules and regulations of the Savitribai Phule Pune University.

I.7. Teaching:

- Medium of instruction - English
- Lectures - Four lectures and one tutorial/practical per course per week, i.e., twenty lectures per week for fifteen weeks in a semester

II. Pattern of Examination

II.1 Assessment and Evaluation:

- An M.A. student will be assessed for his/her performance at a written test of 1600 marks, i.e., sixteen courses of 100 marks each.
- For each semester there will be an external examination of 50 marks and an internal examination of 50 marks per course.
- The external examination will be held at the end of each semester.
- The internal assessment will be carried out throughout the semester.

- The nature of the internal assessment varied. It will include at least three components out of written test, essay writing, group discussion, seminar presentation, tutorial writing, debate on conceptual issues, and oral exam.

II.2 Passing:

- To pass the M.A. examination a candidate must obtain 40% of the total marks in each of the external and internal examination (i.e., separate passing: 20 in external and 20 in internal examination)
- Or, aggregate 40% marks with at least 30% marks in either external or internal examination (i.e., 15 marks out of 50)
- Those of the successful candidates will be given appropriate grades in accordance with the grading pattern accepted by the university.

II.3 Question Pattern:

- External written examination (50 marks): Long answer, short answer, short note, translation, reference to context, etc.
- Internal examination (50 marks): At least three components out of written test, essay writing, group discussion, seminar presentation, tutorial writing, debate on conceptual issues, open book test, oral exam, etc.

PA IV.10: Buddhism and Western Philosophy

[Objective: To introduce the doctrines and discussions in the western philosophy on some important issues common to Buddhism. The student is not supposed to do comparison between Buddhism and western philosophy as a part of this course, but to enrich the understanding of Buddhism in a broader framework. The course consists of four credits. Under each credit first the broad theme and the western theories and philosophers are mentioned. It is followed by a square bracket in which the relevant Buddhist philosophers, their doctrines and concepts are mentioned.]

Credit 1: What is Philosophy - Love of wisdom, rational inquiry, logic as the essence; rhetoric, philosophical analysis [Prajñā, Pramāṇa, Prameya, and Puruṣārtha; theory of Vāda, Nītārtha-Neyārtha]; Nature of Reality: Permanence and impermanence - Parmenides,

Heraclitus [Sauitrāntika; Dharmakīrti]; Structure of Reality: Realism and Idealism - Plato, Aristotle, Berkeley, David Hume [Sarvāstivāda (classification of Dharmas as Skandha, Āyatana, and Dhātu), Vijñaptimātratā]

Credit 2: Universals - Plato, Aristotle, Wittgenstein (Realism, Conceptualism, Nominalism) [Diinnāga, Darmakīrti, Nāgārjuna]; Causation - Aristotle, Hume, Kant, Bergson [Pratītyasamutpāda: Its Theravāda and Mādhyamika interpretation; the doctrine of four pratyayas]

Credit 3: Soul-Mind-Body - Plato, Descartes, Hume, Gilbert Ryle [Anattā, the doctrine of Pañcaskandhas, Pudgalavāda, Vijñānavāda]; epistemology: Empiricism and Rationalism; synthetic-analytic - Descartes, Locke, Hume, Kant [Pratyakṣa and Anumāna in Dharmakīrti's epistemology]

Credit 4: Ethics: Egoistic, altruistic, and universalistic; Hedonism - Aristotle, Hobbes, Kant and J. S. Mill ["Bahujanahitāya, Bahujanasukhāya....", the concept of Middle Path, Arhat and Bodhisattva ideal]; recent trends: Phenomenology (Husserl), Deconstruction (Derrida), Post-modernism (Lyotard) [Vijñānavāda (Vasubandhu), Śūnyatā (Nāgārjuna), Kṣanikatā (Dharmakīrti)]
