"I am an Indian First and Indian last"

Scope

The course focuses on Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's Thoughts on India's National Security. National Security is a very comprehensive concept. It has expanded with human centric approach. In the last decade of the 20th century, the idea of security was critically contested and went through a drastic change. The new element is more focused on human security, in which the state functions as a facilitator.

The Post Graduate diploma course focuses on Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's thoughts and vision about the formation of the nation-state, which will act as a facilitator and defender of humanity. Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's idea of justice, equality and liberty are core elements of contemporary definition of national security.

The course aims to spread awareness about different aspects of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's thoughts, especially in the context of National Security, Indian Society and Social Structure, National and International Security Discourses and India's Defence and Security Policies.

Career prospects:

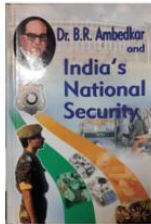

The course will open new perspectives of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's literature to young researchers and academicians. The course will act as a stimulus for young minds to pursue their careers in research, in order to carry on Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's thoughts on National Security.

Rationale of the PG Diploma:

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar was not only a great national leader, but also an excellent academician of the 20th century. He wrote about various issues that plagued the Indian society, state and contemporary world during his life. All his thoughts are directed towards building state and society, based on the principles of humanity.

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar has a critical view on independent India; he categorically rejected independent India built on the old social-political system. The idea of new India is scattered in his writings. He has extensively written and worked on economic, political and social systems to ensure that independent India enjoys real freedom.

The course will focus on various facets of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's thoughts especially in the context of India's National Security.

Aims of the PG Diploma:

- Disseminate ideas and thoughts of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar particularly on subjects of National Security
- Open-up new areas of research on Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's thoughts
- Equip students and researchers with knowledge to translate Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's ideas into practical plans and policy instruments
